Pat's Pet Psychic is proud to be Wyoming's leader in animal communication!

Want to know what animals are really trying to tell you?

Ever wonder what happened to Ralph after he was run over by the UPS man?

Would you like to know why your cat hates you so much?

Pat is widely regarded as the most experienced and trusted animal communicator in the world. Extensive work helping animals handle adversity has distinguished Pat as an expert in the field of animal communication. Pat's passion for animals and understanding of the critical role they play in our lives provides a unique perspective on the way we need to interact with all of the animals in our world.
