I have a 93 land cruiser with factory lockers and also the center diff lock switch. The fender flares have been removed and the body is ready for monstaliner! It has 35 inch nittos and 5.29 gears. This is my daily driver. I bought it from a guy in SC, I fixed a few things and then the truck I really wanted popped up and I bought it. So one has to go. This truck has some surface rust in the hood, the truck is reliable and everything works AC,heat, windows lights etc. The truck is dead reliable abs light is on it needs a new abs sensor, oil level light is on I broke a wire when replacing the starter.
