NO COUNTRY OR METAL, HEAVY ROCK OR ACOUSTIC. Please read! I am looking to do something electronic/rock/pop with a little bit of funk/jazz/blues infusion.

 These recordings were recorded in one take, using shitty Audacity, and the mic in my Macbook Pro.

Hi, I'm Sam!
 I'm looking to join a band/start a band as a front vocalist. Hoping for something along the lines of pop, electronic, rock, indie, alternative, just a mixup of random stuff. Please no metal or heavy rock. I can also play guitar and write lyrics (and rap if you give me a joint and a pint). I don't know a lot about songwriting or production but I'm abundantly intelligent and very eager to learn. I also bought a bass cause I thought it was cool so maybe I'll get better at that haha. I picked up the guitar when I was thirteen.

Walk the Moon, Ellie Goulding, ZZ Ward, Kimbra, Chvrches, Paramore, Iggy Azalea, Justin Timberlake, MS MR, Purity Ring, Goldroom, Pretty Lights... I listen to so much shit it isn't even funny. I want to make epic music and perform live. Getting famous isn't a priority so much as having an excellent time and performing.
