Are you a songwriter but don't know how or have the resources to bring your music to life? I would like to help you make your vision a reality. My name is Gene Crout and I am a Denver area studio owner, producer, musician and teacher and I have helped many artists, both young and young at heart, make their music a reality. From just a simple piano or guitar and vocal demo, to a fully orchestrated, band driven production, I can help you get the music off the paper or out of your heart and into a form that you can share with the world. I have a background in composition and arranging, over 35 years of performance experience on all kinds of guitar, bass and voice, access to some of the best musicians in town who would also love to help you, and I have been professionally producing music for CD, TV, Radio and Web for over 20 years. Let me help you make your music a reality. Just give me a call at or visit one of my websites. www.audiodigital.com www.facebook.com/audiodigital www.reverbnation.com/audiodigital

NOTE: This is a solicitation for business. I am looking for new clients. I am not looking for artists to record for free. .
