Selling my 2008 honda for 2000 obo. The car runs and drives well and strong. Minor flaws in the cosmetics which are shown in the pics but overall a good car and will last a lot longer. Car has a new battery, a new air conditioning system, a new suspension, and a new water pump. Car also comes with a cold air intake preserving gas and making it run smoother and faster at the same time. Also come with full aftermarket exhaust system and aftermarket remote car starter and alarm.linda41hannigan@gmail&
