My name is McJaguar and I am a female Bengal cat that just turned 14, although you wouldn't know it by my nimble moves, expressive face, and lively attitude. I have simple needs like Fancy Feast, pounding water, hanging out in the window in my Kitty Cot, and being around humans. I am extremely vocal and you will hear me roar, but I am declawed in the front so I am light on furniture! Lately, my dad of 14 years hasn't been around due to a new job and I feel deserted. He is constantly on the road, gone for a week at a time, and when he's around he is only home to sleep. I need someone who is at home frequently and willing to provide all the love I will offer in return. I've got years left in me and the vet said I am healthy as a horse! I'm ready for my encore life with the right person, but no other animals. Dad will provide litter box, litter, food, Kitty Cot, blankets, and toys for at least a.
