Charlie & Simba's Story...

Charlie & Simba are charming twin boys, about 8 most old. They look so much alike we have trouble telling who's who! But they are so handsome to look at, we don't mind spending time trying to tell them apart.

They are both VERY friendly and love to be around kids and family. Totally social kitties.

Also very playful, they have a lot of fun together, with or without their humans. Simba is very alert and curious about all that goes on around him. Charlie is too! They are both looking for friends and looking for fun. They sleep together, play together and keep each other company. You won't see one without the other nearby!

These wonderful boys are bonded brothers and must stay together, so they are looking for a forever home that's ready for double the love.
