Coach cream colored wristlet, new with tags, inside is lined with striped satin fabric. Length is 7 inches. I bought this to wear with my dress, to a wedding on the mainland awhile back but ended up forgetting to pack it. It's never been used but there are a couple of tiny scuff marks by the metal ring rubbing up on the leather from having it in storage. Because of that small imperfection, I'm pricing it at $25. Retail price was $98, I got it on sale for around .
