Hello There!

I'm preparing for a booth at trade shows and need to put together marketing materials, signage, and a big banner.

I'm looking for a person with strong artistic skills who can put together some drawings, and also the graphic compilations we'll need, at a reasonable rate. We are offering this as a one time gig with potential for a good bit more work going forward, provided you are easy to work with and submit things in a timely manner.

To apply, please respond to the email linked to this ad and submit your portfolio of recent work, preferably simple colorful illustrations and brand graphics/marketing pamphlets.

Thank You!

Charlie.
