This is "Skye" she is a very very special baby. She has been through a lot. I rescued her from a parking lot where she was dumped and all alone, but sadly she could not see. It is a miracle she survived; this was near a busy road. She had a defect to both eyes, she had 2 surgeries and is now 100%. Her eyelids were deformed and she could not open them. She is VERY grateful and expresses this, she can not get enough love or attention and is a purring sweet heart. She is very laid back and well behaved. She is looking for her FUR-EVER home to be given all the love she deserves. She has been spayed, combo tested negative for Feline leukemia and FIV, Vaccinated, wormed and flea treated. Her eyes are as good as new now.
