Winston is a very beautiful black and white cat that looks like a farm cow! Too much white to be a tuxedo and too much black to be a Turkish Van. So we would like to think he is totally unique. Winston was part of a feral colony, where several cats went through the trap/neuter/release program, but he was really friendly towards people, and being picked on by the other cats. So we decided to take him in and give him a chance at adoption to find a loving forever home. He can sometimes have an attitude when he does not get his way and will make low growl sounds but he has never bitten or scratched. Due to his large size, he is not fond of being picked up, but he loves being petted and scratched under his chin and at the base of his tail. He seems to be the typical cat regarding attention, meaning he comes when he wants it. He is a very calm young man and seems to be non-destructive of household items which is a plus!
