Nicodemus is one of the most beautiful cats we currently have for adoption. He is an overly handsome lynx point Siamese. He is very head strong and will need an owner who is not afraid to put him in his place sometimes. Nicodemus can be one of the most loving cats you will ever see but sometimes has split personality. He has had a rough start in life and does not seem to know the difference between cats and humans sometimes. When he plays with people, sometimes he will get too rough and often bite them. He never draws blood or bites from aggression though, but it can hurt. We are not giving Nicodemus a bad reputation by saying this, but we do feel that it is only fair to be as honest as possible to new possible owners in hopes of finding him the perfect placement. With this said, Nicodemus can be very clingy at times, and especially loves to lay in your lap, being loved on, and will purr up a storm for hours and hours!
