Her parents were rescued from the FREEZING Cold last 2013, so we're not sure of her exact DNA, she's had ALL of her Shots wormer and has been an incredibly affectionate and loyal part of our family. A rehoming fee will be required for perfect placement for our lil girl- her parents were well within the 15-20 lb range and she's stayed well within that as well. Hating to see her go, but I'm looking forward to seeing the opportunities that our out there for.
