I'm Cecilia Bernadette and I'll be launching an erotic literature website with short stories and novellas, including a lot of sci-fi erotica. I also want to offer to write customized erotica for people (singles, couples, any relationship type; any gender and sexual orientation). The erotica may be mild and tame if preferred or a very explicit fantasy.

I would like to practice writing these customized stories, so I would like to do a few for free. If interested, please respond to this post and I will send you a few questions and work with you to customize a 500-1,000 word story. The story could be a fantasy of your own or one you'd like to share with someone special. A romantic and/or depraved story would be the perfect gift for yourself or others.

Don't be shy, let me help you bring out your deepest fantasies. Your information will be kept 100% confidential.

NOTE: There will be NO stories that contain underage people, bestiality, death/murder, or any other non-consensual acts.

Please don't be offended if I don't respond immediately, but you will get a response. Thanks for!
