Hi! I talked to you for a few minutes before the battery died on my phone you found. You were so good, and wanted to return it!! I really do need it-- but mostly, i am sad about so many pictures and memories I only have on that phone. The only pictures of our fall, last pictures of my dog, and my son before his first haircut. These mean the most to me.

Please get in touch with me via email and I will do whatever I can to come up with a finder's fee.

You are a (teenage?) Guy and live in north Minneapolis near the honey gas station on broadway. I was having such a hard time hearing you and finding a place we both knew to meet up. Thank you for trying so hard to help me. Please be in touch!

So many.
