We are looking for hard working professional haulers and junk removers to become part of company while remaining your own boss and still get all the benefits of independent contractors. We will provide a website that we maintain and a website that helps promote business for you and allows for online booking and scheduling. It will help you look more professional which will help land more jobs and even allowing for booking of them online. You will become part of our hauling and junk removal franchisers and ALL jobs in your city/country will be your jobs. This includes but not limited to all jobs that come in online for your city/country.

We are not requiring $100,000 upfront no in fact what we require upfront is hard work and a partnership. Hard work on each and every job by you or your workers. Partnership in helping to promote and always show the best face of the company. We will work hard with you and independently to help promote the company name on a local level giving all jobs to you and your crew. We will collect a fee on each job medium to large job ($150+) of $25 and $20 on each additional load for same job. On all small jobs ($100 or less) we collect $25 for every 3 small job. There is many benefits of working with others some of them being, marketing and promotional benefits, professional looking business and staff, business cards, invoices and proper pricing, phone and internet booking and of course the opportunity to grow faster and help take ownership stake.

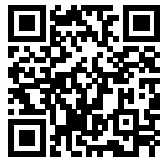

Try to open a junk removal with got junk it will cost you 100k, try with junk kings it will cost you over 50k. Ours simply cost you on a job basics and requires you help take ownership over the area and help to promote the business returning all city/county business back to you.

Email us and tell us why you want to be a part of this and how you can help make this work out. We are looking for hard working junk/haulers that want to be a part of something and want to help take it.
