I'm going to be out of town for a few days and need someone to care for my 4 silly dogs and 2 sweet cats. You'll need to be able to come twice per day, once in the morning and once in the evening, starting next Tuesday evening and ending Friday morning (though there's a slight chance this will be extended through the weekend). It's basically just making sure everyone has food and water and the litter boxes are clean.

You'll also need to be able to come over Sunday or Monday evening so I can introduce you to the monsters and show you where everything is.

Respond by email and tell me about yourself and let me know what you'd.
