Lets create breathtaking wedding photos together.

You can see some reviews on yelp.com just type in Matt Cali Photography at the top where it says "find" and 2 or 3 reviews will show up, scroll down and click "15 other reviews" to see the rest of them.

This is a time in which many decisions are made. I appreciate that budgetary concerns are real and legitimate.

That's why I put together a craigslist special that you can ask me about.

My goal as your photographer is more comprehensive than you might expect. In my experience as a wedding, fashion, commercial, fine art, and portrait photographer, there have been many times when I have calmed a bride having a meltdown, distracted a nervous bride while her groom puzzled over how to get the car keys out of the locked limo, or succeeded in including the defiant, youngest child in his first family photo. It ended up bringing tears to his mothers eyes because it was the first time that he would cooperate and be in the family portrait.

The light and shadows that fall across the faces of your loved ones and you can be artistic or distracting. With 20 years experience and state-of-the-art camera equipment (I use a top of the line 36 mega pixel Nikon) it helps me capture the best that the light and shadows offer.
