Our landlord just informed us we can no longer keep our pet pineapple conure. She is about 2 years old is hand tame and extremely sweet. She can say a few words, but loves to ride on your shoulder and can whistle back to you if you start first. She loves to dance to music, and like most conures loves to hang upside down like a bat. Right now her diet is primarily roudybush with fresh fruits and vegetables plus some nuts. She has never picked and really is such an enjoyable and friendly bird. We are asking 200 for her, or 275 with her cage. We would like her to go to a sweet home that can care for her and continue to play with her daily. Please leave your number and we'll give you a call, as we have to move her within the next!
