Special Needs Mother who works from home is looking for other Mothers in need of childcare on a daily basis.

This service is provided from Gulfport in my home, a clean and well cared for environment. My name is Laura Tapper, I am 45 years of age, have many years of experience with handling health issues and everyday care with a child. My college major is Early Childhood Education and also have years of experience in homeschooling. I am willing to assist with school work and tutor needs.

I am a devoted wife and Mother, person of strong faith, conviction, and family values. I will provide proof of clean background check, driving record, and supply personal references. I am offering my services for $25 per day or $5.00 per hour, including lunch and snack. You can reach me
