I have two male pugs that were given to my family that we cannot keep due to the fact that we already have a puppy. They are both male, one black, one brown. They are both neutered and have all shots and deworming. They are potty trained and cage trained. You can say go to jail and they go into their cage on their own. We would love for them to both go together. asking a rehoming fee of $200 for both, kennel, some dog food and a few other items that go with them. Really wouldnt want to split them but if it comes down to it just email me and we can work something out. THeY are also good with other dogs, and kids. Not to sure how they are with cats for we dont have any. They are about 2 years old. Contact me via e-mail. WIII be posting pictures of them!
