I am Lindsey Hanks. I have a Bachelors degree in Photography from the University of Texas at Arlington. I enjoy photographing a vast variety of subjects.

Each photo shoot is tailored to you, to capture the little details, the facial expressions, and the emotions that are often overlooked. I believe in doing some posed pictures and some candid shots. Many times, some of the best photographs are the real emotions and not a position or expression I ask for.

Smile, laugh, cry, play or even frown! One of my favorite things, as a photographer, is to go with my clients to a location where they feel free and comfortable and relaxed and see where the photo shoot take us.

I am available to photograph most occasions and events, from Bridal shots to babies, birthday parties to family photos. The majority of my photo sessions are outdoors at your desired location, but they can also be done indoors, if you have a location you prefer.

Please Contact me for current rates. I look forward to working with you.
