I have a winter beater for sale. I bought it 2 years ago with 230,000 miles. It is a excellent runner starts up every time but has some issues. It leaks a little antifreeze and burns a little oil but runs like a champion. It currently needs an oil change. Brakes are good. Tires are in good shape yet. No cracks in the windshield. The passenger side window does not roll down. It needs a good cleaning. I'm a non smoker so there's no smoke smell inside the car. It has a brand new battery not even a week old in it.

I have a home phone so if you're interested you can talk with me on it. I'm sorry I don't have texting capabilities. I don't have an answering machine so if it rings with no answer I'll call you back when I get home or you can email me but calling my home phone will be the best way to get first contact with me. I'm asking $1000 obo cash
