I simply need a woman comfortable riding with me along my simple driving route on either Friday night or Sunday night. I would pay for your time as you ride with me on my route. The route I have is a simple route where I place signs to promote new home communities. I know it sounds strange and even a little creepy but I promise you it is legitimate. If you were to assist me by helping place the signs it would probably cause more attention to the signs and possibly allow me to improve my income. I need basically a business partner in this business that I operate on a contractor basis. If you are intelligent, can carry on a normal conversation along the route, and have a great personality it would help tremendously. Also, if you are a somewhat attractive it would help promote my signs as well. If interested please leave me a response. Thank you for your.
