selling my very nice duplex on quiet dead end street. 100% occupied with long term tenants. The rents are a little below the market at this time. In the last 5 years it has a new roof, siding, water heaters, two heating units (propane) all new windows as well as interior upgrades.
 nice village location just minutes away from grade school, high school, library, hospital post office, movie theater , stores and restaurants. The building needs nothing at this time. The location of this duplex with its big back yard is sought after and the two units will always be full. Price is some what.
