I had this wonderful kitty first, adopted her from CL, and thru a misunderstanding (long story) I returned her to the original owners~~who adopted her out again to a woman who promptly "flipped" her for money, back here on CL. Poor kitty, esp as Harlow was/is so very sweet and special.

I just want to know she's ok and happy, and if whoever has her sees this, I will always take her back if she needs a home, and will explain why i returned her in the first place, which would never happen again. I miss her, amazing.
