Females only I have a private room and bath open now.

Just moved in trying to get settled

Room is on the other side of the house, so you will have your privacy

I am Quite and respectful, expect the same

Home has a Pool

Close to lake

use of all common areas

No drugs, no smoking in the house, (Don't care if your Girl friends come over) but no boy friends or male friends over or sleep overs, no pets

Lots of no's, but past roommate problems, with things being stolen, and boy friends (who live at Mommy's home or out of work) eventually trying to move in permanent, dogs that chew and go to the bathroom on the carpet (dogs are dogs I've had them and love them) has proven to me that without these rules this is what and has happened. You have their home to go party at. This is my home and I have a male who has a business and work a lot. I am looking to cut my bills today

$600 (all Bills Paid electric and water) $150
