Jenny is a gentle girl who craves attention, but can sometimes be a bit too shy to ask for it. She loves to get slow, gentle cheek-rubs and massages from volunteers while curled up securely next to them. She hasn't yet shown us her playful side, but we're sure she has one there somewhere. She will do best in a quiet home without young children, as she can sometimes get overwhelmed when she is petted.

Jenny is approximately 3 years old. She has been spayed, microchipped, is current on her vaccinations and has tested negative for FIV and FeLV. Her adoption fee is $35.
