

I'm Andrew Gorny, a solo guitarist from Portland, OR, relocated to Northern CA. I'm a working musician and guitar teacher by trade, have done over a hundred weddings, even more private events, have spent over 1000+ gig hours on cruise ships, have sold thousands of my records worldwide, and have opened for some of the best musicians in the world on tours. At my website, www.andrewgorny.com you can listen to my solo unaccompanied guitar recordings (that is to say, all of the music you hear is coming from one acoustic guitar), as well as peruse video of my playing.

On my days off and ashore, I play on the street, just for fun and some extra bucks/networking. However, craigslist is also a very viable angle for networking.

All prices are negotiable. If you have some kind of super sweet gift certificate to trade, or a sweet instrument you don't use anymore, or something, don't hesitate to throw it out there.

For events: I generally charge $50/hr, rounding up to the hour, including setup and strikedown time. So a 2 hour gig will usually cost $150.

I do custom gigs with your playlist (say you want a whole gig of Bach/Mozart) but I charge an extra $30/performance-hour for custom music to prepare for the gig. That is to say, I only charge extra for the gig, not the arrangement.

For weddings: $450 flat fee for pre-ceremony and ceremony music. This is to accomodate the ceremony, arranging custom music, recording them and packaging the CDs.

If you look at this rate and think "golly, that guy can't be serious." but you're a guitar lover and want a memorable musical experience, just negotiate, throw me what you can and we'll see what we can do. I don't charge for simple conversation :)

I generally do not charge for the rehearsal if you need me to play it, unless it's somewhere ridiculous, like..... Texas
