Videographer/camera guy needed for short clips for fashion blogger.
Must be able to edit, add music and graphics. Must have an eye for aesthetics and creating great short clips. If you can help me write out a story line then that's even better.
Must have reliable transportation and equipment. Be reliable and professional. Be available on Tuesdays and or Fridays because those are usually filming days. Sometimes weekends.
Pay is per project plus traveling expenses.
Please send your sample clips or previous work to my email address provided.
