My family is seriously struggling right now, this is not a scam. My husband was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor and can no longer work, we have 2 beautiful babies & I have an older daughter from a previous relationship. On the suggestion of a friend, we were given a website to try to raise some money to pay our bills, or even someone who fixes things who would be willing to help us fix our home. Will you please read our story and even if you can't help, if you could post our story on your social media to pass along our story it will still help us because somewhere along the way, I believe someone will be able to help our family. This is the link to our fundraiser page...
