I have one opening available at my in-home childcare for a child 14-months or older. You can expect a perfect balance of professionalism and friendliness as we partner to help your little one grow! Here are a few items that my daycare has to offer to your family:

State-licensed for 13 years, all with 100% compliance

Participant with a USDA nutrition program (CACFP)

Teach a full, structured, fun preschool lesson each day to ensure kindergarten readiness

Fully scheduled days that include time for age-appropriate indoor and outdoor structured play, free play, circle time, and centers

Nurturing, loving care for babies, incorporated into every aspect of our day in a family-style environment

Wonderful, clean, main-floor playroom with so very much to do

Fantastic, fenced-in backyard with a large paved patio, plenty of lawn, and awesome play structure

Provider has great education, experience, and AFFORDABLE RATES! I have lots of great references from current and past clients

Located off 108th Street between Q Street and Harrison Street in the Brookhaven neighborhood, close to interstate
