So im trying this again do to the last person i gave her to could not seem to keep her do to lack of agreement with spouse/ roommate and landlord. I have my female rotti that i'm finally sucking it up an letting her go. i really, really don't want to but with my career path now i just don't have the time to spend with her anymore. I'm literally home once a week.

i have family home that feeds her but thats about all they will do. She was a stray i found a little over 2 year ago. She is about 3-4 years old, healthy somewhat relaxed personality. loves attention, not aggressive. she is not fully house broken yet nor is she caught up with her shots yet. she gets along with other dogs once she gets to know them. Like i stated before. i hate to let her go but it hurts me more knowing i don't have time to spend with her. she is looking for a good home with a possible small re home fee. must have a nice size back yard and serious about caring for her. please reply with a pic of the living space/yard the dog will be in. no pic no reply. thank you for
