Are you an artist that can use an opportunity to gain valuable industry experience while competing for a chance of a lifetime?

My name is Malecia and I'm assisting with 2HotRadio.com in finding artists looking to take their career to the next level by helping them gain valuable experiences and resources that will help them in their careers. With that being said, you're in luck there's an opportunity called "Who Wants To Make It" which is a documentary competition (yes you will be on television) for artists (singers and rappers of all ages) who will have the opportunity to perform on the same stage as Nicki Minaj and Snoop Dogg (aka Snoop Lion) in Los Angeles, CA as a part of LA Live! If you are serious and believe that this would be a great way to gain experience and present your music and message to the masses then what are you waiting for?! Go online at <http://www.whowantstomakeit.com/dates.html> and pre-register. If you don't see your city (currently Atlanta, GA is the only city up there for in person pre-registration) just pre-register as instructed on the site and you will be notified when they come to your city or you will be included in the online competition.

All artists will perform on a different day aside from registration (location and time are to be determined).

*Please note that you can have your song added to the BET Awards Weekend Mixtape (fee of $60)*

This is what you are competing for:

Perform in Los Angeles, CA
 $100,000 cash prize
 Opportunity to tour with the artist of your choice
 Chance to reach the next stage of your career to another city and if there is anything that you still have questions on please feel free to email me at .

I only ask that if you pre-register that you list myself Malecia as your referral.

Myself along with 2HotRadio.com are looking to work with artists even after this experience is over in terms of assisting in helping to develop your career and goals that you may have for yourself as an artist so even if you feel this opportunity isn't for you please email me because there may be another opportunity in the future that's a better fit for you.

Good luck to everyone, I respect artists that are willing to work and learn to further develop their craft. Oftentimes going that extra step is well worth it (I know because I'm a songwriter).
