Priscilla has been singing since before she could speak, performing shortly thereafter, and teaching voice and ensembles since 1991. After obtaining her first two degrees in music, earning her BM in Vocal Performance from the University of Minnesota - Duluth; she returned to her roots of contemporary music styles at McNally Smith College of Music in St. Paul MN, where she studied contemporary music for some time before moving on to a liberal studies graduate degree to sharpen her teaching and research skills. She continues to perform and teach in the Twin Cities area, and works professionally with her band, Consecrated Riff-Raff.
