Location Illinois

We are looking to rehome our red nose/lab mix female. She is a very loving, playful, energetic pup who is needing a wonderful family to embrace.

My children and I love her dearly, but she belonged to my fiancé and we split up and he left without her. I would love to keep her and hate to see her go, but I am currently expecting and unable to care for her. The circumstances have been unfortunate for us, we would really like to keep her. I am unable to afford it with the new addition to our family.

She is a perfectly healthy, up to date shots, eats very well, loves to play, she does love to chew. We keep rawhide bones for her to chew on. She love to run outside and play, go for walks, play with toys, etc.

We are not looking for those who do not have time for pets, have no experience with pets, dog breeders, dog abusers, and those who have no intention on keeping her.

She is a house dog and not used to spending days and nights outside alone. If you are they type of person who does any of these things, please do not respond!!!

Her name is Princess. She is a year and 4 months old, and she is a wonderful dog to have join your family.

Serious pet lovers/families!!!
