I am planning on driving to Fort Meyers Florida from Indianapolis next Tuesday or possibly Wednesday depending on the weather. I would like someone to share the cost of gas that would like a ride there. I am estimating that cost of gas will be $60.00 for your half. Having someone to talk and keep me awake would help me a lot. I am driving straight through and do not plan on making any stops except to eat and a few extra restroom stops. I am going to make a return trip after a few weeks so if you are interested that option is available too. No drugs, drinking, hanky panky or psychos. I am driving a dependable car that is great on gas. Please contact me for more.
