Hi,

I'm a dance enthusiast and recently got my head dunked in Salsa dancing. It is difficult and addictive. I've been trying to learn Salsa dancing watching Youtube videos (found a channel that has huge collection of salsa dance videos with instructions) but without a partner its just not possible. I'm looking for a female partner who:

- 1) Doesn't necessarily know Salsa (or any other kind of dancing) but is willing to learn
- 2) Can spare approximately 3-4 hours on the upcoming Sunday afternoon/evening

I already know some basic steps so I can get you up to speed. Post that, its watching the videos and then trying the steps out. I have a lot of wine and will get pizza to keep us buzzed and energized.

This a good opportunity to learn Salsa dancing for free. It'll be even better if you can bring more friends.

Either text me @ three-5-two-8-7-0-zero-eight-three-9 or if using CL mail relay, put "Salsa Fever" in subject line so I know you are.
