4 month old yellow lab pup for adoption. Daisy is a SWEET SWEET girl. She is a fun loving and a caring friend . She knows basic commands come, sit, stay and obviously responds to her name. She is house broken, crate trained and up to date on her current shots I do have the records. I understand fully that I put this puppy in this situation but at the time of getting Daisy I was lost in the moment and never took a second to realize the depth it takes to raise a puppy. I just work to much and the kids are lost in school activities and by the time everyone gets together it seems for a brief moment and I know Daisy deserves more than that and thats why I am trying to find her that forever home without any more time lost. There is a rehoming fee and if you are responding to this ad be 100 percent sure you know what it takes to have and raise a dog dont be caught up in the.
