ORIGINAL ROCK SINGER /PERFORMER /SONGWRITER Looking for a guitarist or band to rework my songs, learn yours and write new ones then get out and gig. Looking for players who appreciate the 70's for being the time when bands were diverse and also looked the part.

I am definitely a performer and whatever it is that I do I usually make an impact; real applause and I'm pretty sure they are thinking and talking about it the next day.

I've been on a label and have toured. Not necessarily looking for that again but if let's say, a YouTube video goes viral, then... oh well.

If you're willing to work at it and create something great then CALL. You can't learn much about a person through email.
