I'm a huge animal lover. I'm looking to watch and take in your family's dogs. My family has had 5 of our own at one time. We love all types of animals and have had almost every type of animal. They are family to us and I would like to give other people the help they want when needed, with someone they can trust and know their animal is in great hands.

I let the dogs roam around the house freely. The dogs sleep wherever they end up, the house is theirs while they stay over. They play all day with my animals. During the summer we have a gated yard so the dogs can play and run around as much as they want. We have a small pool that they love playing in.

I live on a quiet dead end street where everyone knows each other. It's great to take walks on. There's also a park not even a block away from my house. It's great to take the dogs there to run freely.

The rate is $35/night, or $50 for the day.
