We are not professional sellers...My wife and I are downsizing after 49 years of Marriage and getting rid of lots of our "stuff." The collections or items that we are selling are not from any Garage Sales or Estate sales. These were our personal items and "One Owner" things. This Coors Beer sign belongs to a dear friend who asked that we help her in selling this rare and unique piece of "Rocky Mountain" History. If you are viewing a vintage item, it is sold "As Is" with no returns. If you have any questions, please contact us before you bid or make an offer or purchase.

As people of integrity, we strive to accurately describe each item in word and in our photographs. We are not professional sellers, but we are not professional liars either. We have a good background for it.
