At it again!

I'm a singer on keyboard/synth, looking to start a group. Going for a rock/post-rock sound, a bit electro, a bit dark/moody, a bit abstract. Not "art rock", but I'll use the term. Influences include: Radiohead (from the last 10 years especially), Sigur Ros, Grizzly Bear, Beach House, Antlers, The National, some slight 80's/post-punk, etc.

More than anything, I'm looking for musicians to collaborate with. Would love to start by finding a drummer/percussionist or guitarist and seeing how we jive creatively and if we're going for the same type of sound.

Some rough samples of some ideas I have: <https://soundcloud.com/vtsample> (headphones, please). Again, not looking for people just to play my stuff - these are more reference points than anything.

Anything else you want to know, hit me up.

Thanks for!
