Take your electronic music production or keyboard playing to the next level!

We will study music theory including scales, chords, rhythm & harmony...this is the foundation of all music.

I will teach you how to work the keys effectively and play awesome melodies as well as how to come up with rocking bass lines and interesting chord progressions. Your fingers will become dextrous.

What I will teach you is guaranteed to raise the musical level of your production! It doesn't matter what genre you are creating - music, harmonic and rhythmic theory will definitely improve your sound drastically, and it won't take you long to see and hear the results.

I have been performing for over 20 years, have produced many albums of electronic music and am a composer of contemporary classical piano compositions...I would love to share what I've learned over 25+ years of piano/keyboard playing and study.

Please email or call Isaac @ for a free consultation.

$40/45 minutes

The skills that Isaac teaches are geared for any level and can improve all areas of your musical endeavors." - Kolby

"Piano has always been a dream for me to play so when I met Isaac at the dog run in Bushwick I finally made the leap. I've now been working with him for 6 months and am happy to say it has developed into a blessing and a joy. Isaac is a young and radiant person, exuding a positive energy that seems to be bound to his love for music. Isaac is an extremely impressive and masterful piano player, a talent that is evenly matched by his eagerness and generosity to share his knowledge and passion. His teaching style is caring, attentive, professional and generous but never condescending or pedagogical nor does he ever rush through lessons. His house is warm and inviting and a block and a half from the L train. He is not only a great piano teacher but also one of the best teachers I've had yet. For the quality of the teacher I consider it to be a great deal. I highly recommend him!" -Lautaro

"If you are looking to get started with piano or take your playing to a new level, talk to Isaac! I'm grateful for having stumbled across such a passionate and supportive piano teacher. He has a unique ability to help you meet and exceed any goals you may have." - Bennett

"Isaac is an awesome teacher but also a riot to be around and a kind individual. His unique mind and eloquent tongue allow him to simplify his extensive technical knowledge into concepts that are easy to understand and integrate, making him a great teacher. His open heart and exposure to working with a diversity of people, instruments and genres make him a very interesting person and great friend. I would take lessons just to spend an hour a week with this character." - Carolina

"Isaac is a fantastic teacher. I've been taking lessons with him for a little less than a year and my progress has been tremendous. He's extremely passionate, you can tell he truly cares about working together and making every lesson count." - Emily

"Isaac is a wonderful teacher, He's dedicated, encouraging and passionate. I've had the pleasure of taking classes with him for more than 6 months and I have seen more progress with him than I have seen in years with other teachers. He listened to what I wanted to learn, and then designed a course of study specifically for me. His style is relaxed and professional at the same time. I look forward for his class each week. I recommend him to anyone who is interested in taking piano lessons." - Carlos

"After years of failed attempts to take (and stick with) piano lessons, I found studying with Isaac provided me with a learning environment in which I could make real progress. As a teacher, Isaac is encouraging, insightful, and compassionate; as a musician, he's achieved a level of mastery and dedication to practice, and has an amazing talent for composition in a breadth of musical styles. Highly recommended for anyone who wants to learn piano." - Lucie

"If you're looking for a patient and knowledgeable piano teacher Isaac's your man. I've been taking lessons for about six months and my technique and reading ability have improved dramatically. Not only is he flexible in style but he is also very accommodating when it comes to your pace, an important point in a city with so much going on. If your hope is to learn or improve your skills on the piano, Isaac is definitely the man for the job!"
