I have a young female blue tick coonhound that I bought last summer and unfortunately with my work schedule and kids playing sports I can't spend the time with her that she deserves. She is completely potty trained and working on commands still. Gets along with children and other dogs great. The seller I bought her from said she's a pure bred coonhound but didn't have papers to prove it. I'm asking a $50 dollar rehoming fee for her if your the right person or family for her and she comes with bowls some food and collar. If interested my number is

and my name is
