We have a row/townhouse right off of Academy Road and Frankford Ave. Property is located at the 4000 block on Tolbut Street in Philadelphia, Pa. 19136. Zoned R9A. (residential) It's a 3 bedroom, 1.5 bath with a finished basement with a one car garage that needs updating. There is street and off street parking in rear of the house with a garage as well. All appliances including a new washer and dryer will be staying in the property. It has the original hardwood floors in it which are not in bad condition what do ever. The house will need to be updated and or completed. Homeowner had started multiple projects but just has not had the time to actually complete them. Property is on a GREAT street where all the properties are nice and should have a strong support system. House is in good condition and should need approximately 30k to 40k to get it looking like a retail end. The owner is a summer home owner and a business and improvement. Rent it for 1500 to 2000 per month. It is walking distance to multiple shopping centers and convenience stores. It is fast for establishments. There will only be one 2 hour showing and you can text me for the date and time.
