We would like to develop a relationship with a motivated individual who would like to earn extra money selling flooring. You MUST have a garage or warehouse that is able to store 2-3 pallets of flooring at a time. This is a great opportunity to link up with a growing business in the early stages. There would be an initial investment of $1,000-$2,000 required which would be for inventory that you will receive and be able to sell. PLease reply to this ad with your contact information if you are.
