Steady part-time freelance work.

Work from home and make the world a better place.

Parallel Drive is a socially conscious business incubator. We're spreading awareness that tech can be used to create positive change in the world through a variety of activities, including tech education, career management, and film. We're a revenue-strong, self-funded startup with a remote-work culture.

We're looking for somebody to create and manage a CSS framework and UI design resources.

The ideal candidate is a powerhouse CSS expert who lives to create rock solid, stunning user experiences.

Must Have:

3+ years experience with CSS, UX design, HTML. Expert at high performance, silky-smooth animations. Expert with responsive design for web applications and blog layouts. A working knowledge of JavaScript, jQuery, Node.js, Bash, npm, and Git.

Nice to have:

Experience with React+JSX. Wordpress experience. User testing experience. Strong Illustration skills. Experience with startups and agile UX. Experience with Creative Cloud. A Behance portfolio. Some experience, or interest in product management. Experience or interest in video, animation and motion graphics.

What you get:

Work from home. Competitive salary. Good benefits. Set your own timeline. 10-20 hours per week.
