Hi this little girl is such a Pomeranian! The only reason that we are re-homing her is we work A LOT and she is home alone all the time and we know she would be so much happier with a family that is home more often. She loves to snuggle and play! She is good with kids and other dogs but got beat up by a cat so is scared at first with them but will get over it. She is about 3 months old,, about 5.5 lbs and already neutered! We are asking a small re-homing fee of $300 to ensure she is going to a home that can take care of her. Please email with questions and also tell a little about why you would be a good home and family for her
