Hi I'm moving to Nashville in hopes of pursuing a music career and looking for a living situation. Can move in anytime after April 1 and looking to not commit more than a 6month lease for now. I'm a simple guy so I'm looking for something relatively affordable less than $800/mo ideally. I'm 26, sing/play guitar, in general a laid-back easy to get along with guy. Looking to get a bar job on the side and do music as much as possible, so will be on that schedule although I am not a big drinker/partier so you shouldn't have to worry. I also have a small 25-lb dog who is super cute and well-behaved. Let me.
